NOTIFIED,

President Cleveland at Last Learns of His Nomination

EVENSON SURPRISED ALSO

Both Had Long Speeches Written to Deliver Before Hand—No Matter—Grover to Make a Big Democratic Meeting.

New York, July 20.—The first decisive step in the Democratic campaign of 1892 was taken to-night in Madison Square Garden in the presence of a vast assemblage. The huge auditorium was packed to its capacity, and as the clock struck 8 the 15,000 persons comfortably, it is estimated, present that number were present. It was not alone that brought this vast throng together, the notification notices of the nominees of the Democratic party, Grover Cleveland and Adlai E. Stevenson. As early as 6 o'clock crowd began gathering about the doors and at 7:30 p.m. when they were opened the streets about the garden were filled with a pushing, struggling, perspiring throng, which flowed into the auditorium with the roaring sound of a cataract. Never before had such a crowd nor such enthusiasm been displayed. The enthusiasm was economized to the utmost.

At the exercises Cappa's band rendered a series of new music, to which the perspiring crowd listened to in a philosophic manner at the same time endeavoring to keep cool by swinging fans and hand fans.

A platform was placed at the fourth story of the building. Over it was a massive sounding board. In the center hung two national flags, and over it was written in incandescent lamps were "Cleveland and Stevenson." The hall has a seating capacity for 750 persons, and a thousand on it before the time for it appeared. The crowd was a good one, despite the heat, relieving its feelings frequently by rounds of applause as a familiar figure appeared on the platform. At first glance during the speech the whole house would imagine the whole house composed of men, but after the hall was had settled, the fair sex showed themselves from it in bewildering summer attire and the inevitable fan.

Among the prominent persons who were William C. Whitney, Governor Flower, Frederick Cook, W. Bourke Cockran, Mayor Hewitt, Henry Watterson, Perry Belmont, B. Rhodes of Alabama, Don Cable, Carson and D. P. Dunne of Illinois, Collins of Texas, ex-Governor Hill, R. R. Holden and Calvin S. Brice, Senator Pasco, William Hayden of Florida and a host of others.

Cleveland and party arrived at half past 8 o'clock and this gave the crowd a chance to give vent to some of their enthusiasm. Quiet had scarcely been restored when a lusty cheer announced Mr. Stevenson. He appeared escorting Adlai E. Stevenson and Mr. Stevenson acknowledged the compliment by a graceful bow.

A concert piece of music was played at 8:15 p.m. At this time Chairman Wilson of the notification committee came on the stage. Surrounded by a group of men in the leader of the Democratic party, the reform, made his way to the front of the platform. The cheering was long and loud before there was anything could be heard. Cleveland looked impassive amid the cheering of the gathering and the applause. Wilson stood on their feet applauding. Cleveland stood on their feet applauding. Cleveland stood on their feet applauding. He bowed his thanks, the enthusiasm continued and continued. The chairman of the committee Nicholas Dill finally held the crowd to be silent. Col. Wilson of West Virginia approached the rostrum and Grover Cleveland to the front of the stage. The speech of notification.

Mr. Wilson said: "We bring you a message from the Democratic party, a committee from the national convention representing every Democratic voter in the country, to give the notification that you have been nominated as candidate for the office of president of the United States.

"Nominated by a party charged with the duty of giving to the country a true exposition of the principles which underlie the great political issues of the day, and of the measures which we shall propose for the solution of the great problems of our time, it is truly a Jeffersonian party, with great principles, which will be the guide for all the people without distinction of section or grades of citizens.

"Gentlemen then spoke at length on the Democratic party and the principles which it represents. In conclusion he said: "We put into your hands the banner under which we are marchers. It is the honor of our party can bestow. It is a call to duty your fellow Democrats. But we believe we can say that there are no cowards, weary or despondent Democrats in the ranks of our party and with the people's cause we hasten not you will be true to the principles of our party and triumph, and the welfare of the country shall be mightily promoted."

"I hear the speech of the distinguished gentleman of the committee. Order, obtained for the first time during the chairman's address. Colonel Wilson's voice was heard as Colonel Wilson's voice was heard, the figure of a man, a party which was leaving their seats were crowded to the front in the direction of the speaker. The high five party at the hotel Tuesday evening was one of the liveliest of the season. Eight tables were filled, and a goodly number who did not care to join in cards indulged in billiards and other amusements. The lady's first prize was won by Mrs. Atwood of Topeka, and the gentleman's by Mr. Harper of Kansas City. The prizes consisted of handsome floral booklets prepared by Mrs. Walker of Denver, containing flowers from Green Mountain Falls. The covers were beautifully decorated with the inscription, "Compliments of the Green Mountain Falls Hotel." The booby prizes were won by Mrs. Brittney of St. Louis, and Miss Harper of Kansas City, the latter having played the part of a gentleman.

A CLEAR CASE.

It has been proven beyond all question of a doubt that Oregon Kidney Tea will cure all cases of kidney and urinary troubles, pain in the back, diseases of the bladder, nervousness and all complaints arising from a disordered or debilitated state of the kidneys or urinary organs of either sex.

The drinking of alkali or impure water will in time weaken and decompose the urinary organs of the strongest constitutions, bringing on a disease of the kidneys which may in time prove fatal. Although the change of climate may be counteracted by the use of Oregon Kidney Tea. It is pleasant to take, and a trial will convince you of its merits. Call and get a sample package free. Half Tone Views,

With the Attractive Title

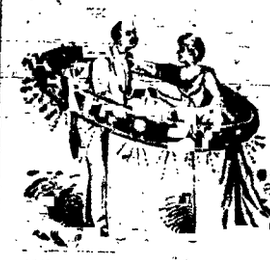
"AROUND PIKE'S PEAK!"

Is now on sale at the Office of this Paper.

THERE have been a great many very beautiful souvenir books of Colorado Springs and vicinity issued, but none that are in any way similar to this. The pictures are all of large size, suitable for framing. The plates are the finest photo-engravings that could be secured from the best photographs, by the leading process engravers of Philadelphia, Boston and Chicago. The views are, many of them, to be found only in this collection, made from photographs taken expressly for us. There is no descriptive matter beyond a title line for each plate. The workmanship in printing and binding is the best that could be put on the book.

As the Edition is Limited People Desiring Copies Should Apply Very Soon.

The Price is $1 for the Set of Fourteen Pictures, and the Book is only on Sale at this Office.



THE ONLY GENUINE GOLD CURE

Just now there's a good deal of talk about the Indian gold cure, and most people have somewhat vague notions on the subject. You need not be in doubt about any more about our gold cure, catches, etc. They include what is full, effective cure at a cost what is both. If your tastes are refined, good we can gratify it, too, thoroughly; if it isn't, [illegible] good [illegible] will cultivate it. [illegible] Our Assortment of [illegible] We don't claim that the display is dazzling, but we will [illegible] it isn't [illegible] and we [illegible] this state about it, you will marvel at the selection of [illegible] in fine stitching and [illegible] "we mean of [illegible]"

New York Stock Market

New York July 20.—Money [illegible] at 2 per cent. High 2 2, low 1½

The stock market was a little more animated this morning, the opening displaying some weakness. The market soon became firm at slightly better prices. Sugar and Paul Louisville Reading and Burlington were the most active stocks Between 11 and 12 o'clock it generally all were fractions better than first prices. After 12 o'clock the market became strong and material progress was made toward higher prices. Even better prices were realized among the leaders toward the very hour and at the close the market, while quiet, was strong at the highest prices of the day The close was dull but strong at the highest figures. Total sales 908,000 shares.
